

How many challenges can you complete?

Get hooked in your book. Read for at least 10 minutes in silence.		Predict what will happen next. Write it down or share your idea with someone. Check later to see if you were right.		If you were an author. What would your book be about? Use a storyboard to show your ideas.
	Did you enjoy your book? Complete a book review that we can display in the library.		Draw around your hand and write 5 things that have happened in your book on the fingers/thumb.		Write a letter from a character in your book that talks about their adventures.
If you were to choose a non-fiction book, what topic would it be about and why?		Build your reading stamina try to read for longer each time. Start with 10 minutes, then 15 etc.		Find a description of your favourite character and draw them.
	Find a comfortable place to curl up with your book. Cushions and blankets help make a cosy den.		Design a poster to advertise a film based on the last book you read		Share a story